Essay: What would you like your legacy at Purdue to be once you graduate?

Charles Hass, a vital member of the Purdue Bands family during the early 1990's and an active participant in Kappa Kappa Psi, tragically lost his life in 2000. Members of Charles' family along with friends and loved ones established the Charles M. Hass Memorial Scholarship to honor the memory of Charles and to keep Charles' love of Purdue and Purdue Bands alive forever. The recipient will be a junior or senior member of a Purdue Bands & Orchestras Department ensemble and will be an active member, in good standing, of either Kappa Kappa Psi or Tau Beta Sigma. The recipient will be a leader in the band program, exhibiting Charles' enthusiasm and spirit for university bands.

The application consists of this form along with an essay discussing the topic stated on this application. This essay portion of the process is meant to embody the kind of intellectual curiosity which was such a part of Charles Hass. The topic of the essay will be different from year to year and will be selected by the Director of Bands or his designee. The scholarship is non-renewable. The Director of Bands & Orchestras will make selection with the assistance of the band faculty. The Charles Hass Memorial Scholarship will be awarded at the Fall Awards Banquet in December. Application must be submitted by October 27, 2023. The scholarship will not be based on a grade point index nor will be given based on financial need.
