

COLLEGE OF THE Holy Cross

CELEBRATING 175 YEARS

THE CHRISTIAN GROWTH IN CHINA: IS CHINA THE NEW ROMAN EMPIRE?

IS CHINA THE NEW ROMAN EMPIRE?

THE CHRISTIAN GROWTH IN CHINA AND GLOBAL IMPLICATIONS

FENGGANG YANG
Professor of Sociology and
Director of the Center on Religion and Chinese Society,
Purdue University
Author, Atlas of Religion in China, Brill 2018

In spite of religious suppression, China may have the world's largest Christian population by 2030. How is this possible? America's foremost expert on Christianity in China, Fenggang Yang, will explain.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15 | 4:30 PM | REHM LIBRARY
One of the Deitchman Family Lectures on Religion and Modernity.

COLLEGE OF THE Holy Cross
Rox. Mission, C. 380 Parsons St.
Center for Religious, Ethical and Cultural Catholic Cultures
FIND OUR LECTURES ONLINE:
holycross.edu/mclarlandcenter

