

FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 2019

12:00 - 1:30	Networking Luncheon Lunch catered by Juniper Spoon
1:30- 2:30	Four Easy Ways to Grow Mushrooms Joel Myers, Mushroom Mountain	Price trends at farmers markets: What was hot in 2018 and what to expect in 2019 Ariana Torres, Purdue University	Small Ruminant Value-Added Products Farmer Panel	The Necessity of Value-Added Products for Profitability PJ Jonas, Goat Milk Stuff	Designing your Packshed: The PrairiErth Farm Experience Hans and Kaite Bishop, PrairiErth Farm
2:30- 2:45	Break
2:45- 3:45	Mycopesticides: Collecting and Cultivating Fungal Entomopathogens for Organic Pest Control Joel Myers, Mushroom Mountain	Running a Farm as a Workers Cooperative Daniel Brisebois, Ferme Torne-Sol	Small Ruminant Value-Added Products Farmer Panel	Herbs, Oils, and Added Value: Expanding Your Farm Offerings Ben Cohen, Small House Farm	Keeping the Customer Satisfied-Ways to Adapt in Evolving Markets Katie Bishop, PrairiErth Farm
3:45- 4:45	Trade Show Break Trade Show Demonstration – Gaining Efficiencies on the Market Farm with the Paperpot Transplanter Roundtable session – Student Farm Gathering Book Sale
4:45 – 6:00	Keynote Session Soil Redemption Song Michael Phillips, Lost Nation Orchard
6:00 – 7:30	Evening Reception Light fare and cash bar catered by Juniper Spoon				