A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

WIL HAYGOOD
TUESDAY, JAN. 22, 2019 — 7:00 P.M.
LOEB PLAYHOUSE, STEWART CENTER

WIL HAYGOOD, who has family roots in the civil rights hotbed of Selma, Alabama, is a Pulitzer Prize nominee, Guggenheim fellow and National Endowment for the Humanities fellow. Haygood’s lifelong curiosity about the civil rights era has led him to write about many people who lived and worked in Dr. King’s orbit, and about the American South. Haygood will discuss why Dr. King’s quest for social justice still endures, examining issues such as economic equality, voting rights, the criminal justice system and gender rights.
