The diversity resource office invites you to attend the Transformations Forum

Reimagining Diversity Work: A Working Anatomy of Its Transformational Potential

Wednesday, April 1
10:30am • Krannert Auditorium

Mitchell J. Chang
Professor, University of California, Los Angeles
&
Fellow, National Education Policy Center

Mitchell J. Chang is professor of higher education and organizational change and Asian American Studies at the University of California, Los Angeles. Dr. Chang’s research focuses on the educational efficacy of diversity-related initiatives on college campuses and how to apply those best practices toward advancing student learning and democratizing institutions. Well published, his works have been cited in the U.S. Supreme Court ruling of Grutter v. Bollinger, one of two cases involving the use of race sensitive admissions practices at the University of Michigan. Professor Chang has also served on the editorial boards of the American Educational Research Journal, The Review of Higher Education, Liberal Education, Equity & Excellence, Journal of Higher Education, Higher Education Abstracts, Diversity in Higher Education, AAPI Nexus, and Amerasia. The recipient of numerous awards and honors, Professor Chang has also served in elected positions for both the American Educational Research Association (At-Large Member of AERA Council & Division J) and the Association for the Study of Higher Education (Board of Directors).