Welcome, explorers, to the first edition of the Exploratory Studies newsletter! We hope that this newsletter will give you all the information that you need, as well as help you learn about some fun events going on around campus!

We need your help! We are asking all of YOU to help us come up with a name for our newsletter! If you have any cool ideas and want to win a prize, please send them to Cara Wetzel: crwetzel@purdue.edu

---

Important Dates!

- January 18 - last day to CODO for the Spring 2019 Semester
- January 21 - MLK Day - No class!

Registration Information!

- January 21 - Last day to drop a class with no penalties
- February 4 - Last day to add/modify a course with an advisor’s signature
- February 4 - last day to drop a course with a “W” appearing on your transcript
- March 8 - Final day to drop a course with the signatures of your instructor AND advisor.

---

Looking for a job? Interested in going to a career fair? Stop by the Purdue University Center for Career Opportunity (CCO) for more information! Drop-in hours: 10-4 in YONG 132

Looking for something to do on a Friday night? Purdue Student Union Board (PSUB) is hosting a “Coffee and Canvas” event on January 31 from 7-9pm in the Union Commons! Registration is $5/person and you MUST BRING YOUR STUDENT ID!

If you need help with your resume, practicing your elevator pitch, or even getting professional head shots taken, come to the Career Advice Extravaganza! Open to ALL majors, feel free to stop by on January 29 from 6-8pm in Matthews Hall (2nd floor)