

CHANGEMAKER BOILER CHANGEMAKER

The Boiler Changemaker Award recognizes:

RACHEL ZHANG

Rachel's nominator wrote:

She does it all! Rachel is a superstar who is not afraid to take responsibility to lead teams for social change while pursuing her Doctoral degree in Hospitality and Tourism Management and Master's degree in Agricultural Economics.

She volunteers as an ambassador for the Center for Advocacy, Response and Education (CARE) and helps to spread awareness about interpersonal violence (e.g., sexual harassment), and the resources available to our Purdue community.

Concurrently, Rachel helps voicing graduate student concerns and find resolutions while being a member of HHS Graduate Student Council. Rachel also strives to help our community through her teaching.

She created a curriculum where students cooperate with local businesses and practice their knowledge on revenue management skills learned in her classroom. Rachel also mentors incoming graduate students by being a part of the PGSG and previously as the HTM GSA President.

Awesome Job, Rachel!

Do you know a grad student who is making big changes? Nominate them at: bit.ly/BCMAWARD