GRADUATE SCHOOL EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARD

The Graduate School will award up to five Graduate Teaching Assistants with the Graduate School Excellence in Teaching Award at the annual banquet to be held on the evening of Wednesday, May 11, 2022. Each recipient will receive a plaque and $500.00.

Up to two unranked nominations are welcome from each college and each college may have their own deadlines and selection rubric to determine its nominees. It is imperative to check with your college for specific guidelines. Nominations must then be submitted electronically using the application format attached to Associate Dean James Mohler (jlmohler@purdue.edu) by Friday, March 25. Questions may be directed to Casey Hollingsworth at chollingsworth@purdue.edu or 49-42604.

Eligibility requirements for a Graduate School Excellence in Teaching Award are the following:

- Applicants must be registered as full-time graduate students (enrolled for eight credits or more) during the Spring 2022 semester.
- Applicants must have served as a Graduate Teaching Assistant for at least two sessions during their Purdue graduate program.
- Previous recipients of the Graduate School Excellence in Teaching Award are not eligible. (See website for a list of past recipients https://www.purdue.edu/gradschool/awards/type/Award-Recipients.pdf.)

*Note that the 2022 Graduate School Excellence in Teaching Award program is being conducted independently from other Teaching Academy awards and the Center for Instructional Excellence. It is not a requirement, as in past years, that eligibility is limited to graduate students who have received the Teaching Academy Graduate Teaching Award.

Please address the following items, in the order listed below, in the application. While you are not limited to the items listed, any additional information is subject to the four (4) page limit. This 4-page limit does not include the required Nomination Cover Sheet.
