From: Lahore, Pakistan

Studies: Engineering Education

Why did you choose Purdue?

The School of Engineering Education at Purdue was at the top of my priority list.

What is your favorite fact about Purdue?

It's a very diverse community. I've made a lot of international and local friends.

Please briefly describe your research:

I am a third year PhD student at the School of Engineering Education at Purdue University. I am interested in studying non-cognitive/affective and individual/demographic factors that impact student learning and participation in engineering/computing both in online and residential tertiary learning spaces.

Name one to three words that best describes your work?

Equity in education

Where do you spend most of your time on campus?

Wang Hall and Armstrong

If you have free time, how do you choose to spend it?

Spending time with friends, photography

Current mobile device:

LG G4

Current computer:

Macbook Pro

What apps, software, or tools can't you live without?

Whatsapp, Facebook

What's your workspace setup like?

The workspace in my house. My desk/standing desk is surrounded with a whiteboard and a bookshelf. I like to have everything near me because of which I prefer to work at home.

What's your best time-saving shortcut?

Make a daily to-do list

What's your favorite to-do list manager?

Paper and pencil

What do you listen to while you work?

When I need to concentrate, I need silence, but many times I have YouTube running in the background. The choice of music depends on my mood. These days I am listening to the latest season of the Pakistani Coke Studio.

What everyday thing are you better at than everyone else?

I think the word "better" is relative and hence I find it difficult to judge what I am better at than someone else

Fill in the blank. I'd love to see _____ answer these same questions.

Malala Yousafzai

What are you currently reading, or what is the last thing you read (aside from academic reading)?

Grit by Angela Duckworth

What's your sleep routine like?

I am an early-riser.

How do you recharge physically and/or mentally?

I like to meditate and cook.

What's the best advice you've ever received?

Don't ever give up.

What is (are) your career goal(s)?

To hold an academic position in engineering at a well-known university.
