

FREDERICK N. ANDREWS FELLOWSHIP

The Graduate School*Deadline: Determined by School

The Andrews Fellowships are for the recruitment of outstanding Ph.D.-track students to graduate programs at Purdue University. Each fellowship provides a four-year award package to the fellow, which includes two years of stipend support from the Graduate School and two additional years of funding support from the graduate program. The Andrews Fellowship, whether administered as a fellowship or as an assistantship, also provides tuition coverage and a medical insurance supplement. The student recipient must have an admit date of fall 2016 or spring 2017.

Application and Selection Process

Students do not apply directly for the Andrews Fellowship. Selection of the recipients is conducted by the graduate faculty that administers the graduate program to which the student was admitted. At a minimum, the selection process considers the students' academic and scholarly achievements and abilities, based on admission application materials requested by the graduate program. To receive full consideration, graduate students must submit completed application materials by the program deadline.

Student Eligibility

Recipients of Andrews Fellowships must be admitted to Purdue as Ph.D.-track students in a degree-granting graduate program and must demonstrate superior academic achievement and scholarly abilities. The student recipient must have an admit date of fall 2016 or spring 2017.

Award Provisions

The Andrews Fellowship provides a four-year award package to the student. The tenure of the Andrews Fellowship is two years. The Graduate School provides:

- Stipend of $16,795<sup>1</sup>;
- Payment of tuition and some fees;
- Medical insurance supplement.

The graduate program commits two additional years of support, usually in the form of research assistantships, teaching assistantships, or a combination thereof, to guarantee to the fellowship recipient a total award package of four years.

Award Terms and Conditions

Recipients must:

- be enrolled and maintain status as Ph.D.-track students in a degree-granting graduate program at Purdue;
