

Instructions for Completing the PULSe Student Advisory Committee Report

Rules and Regulations for PULSe Advisory Committee Meetings

With the specific purpose of helping you upgrade the quality of research by critical discussion, an Advisory Committee Meeting is scheduled by you at least once a year commencing at the start of the second year of residence.

Students will be responsible for arranging their meeting and may schedule the meeting any time prior to the deadline.

A typed PULSe Student Advisory Committee Report is to be prepared and distributed to the Advisory Committee and to the PULSe office using the following sequence and format at least one week prior to each meeting. Although there is no minimum or maximum page length requirement for the reports and reports will vary from student to student, it is recommended you check with your advisory committee members on the appropriate page length limit.

The required contents of the report are as follows:
