

Introduction to the ELM Curriculum: Birth–36 Months	1
Birth to Three Years as a Distinct Period of Development	1
Key Characteristics of ELM: Intentional, Meaningful, Plentiful	3
Intentional	3
Meaningful	6
Plentiful	7
ELM’s Starting Points	8
Developmentally Appropriate Practice	8
Guidance from Research Evidence and Experts	8
Pilot Testing	9
Staff Credentials and Turnovers	9
Areas Promoted by ELM	12
Communication/Language	12
How ELM Promotes Communication and Language Development	13
Exploring Words	13
Exploring Sounds	14
Building on the Activity Plans	14
More Practices for Promoting Communication and Language	14
Strengthening Your Understanding of Communication and Language	15
Cognitive	17
How ELM Promotes Cognitive Development	17
Exploring Objects	18
Solving Problems	19
Sorting and Matching	19
Building on the Activity Plans	19
More Practices for Promoting Cognitive Development	19
Strengthening Your Understanding of Cognitive Development	20
Self-Regulation	22
How ELM Promotes Self-Regulation	23
Getting Calm	23
Paying Attention	24
Focusing and Remembering	24

Areas Promoted by ELM: Self-Regulation continued

Building on the Activity Plans	25
More Practices for Promoting Self-Regulation	25
Strengthening Your Understanding of Self-Regulation	25
Social-Emotional	27
How ELM Promotes Social-Emotional Development.....	28
Interacting with Others.....	28
Exploring Feelings	28
Building on the Activity Plans	29
More Practices for Promoting Social-Emotional Development.....	29
Strengthening Your Understanding of Social-Emotional Development.....	29
Physical/Health	31
How ELM Promotes Physical Development and Good Health Practices.....	32
Moving Our Bodies	32
Using Our Hands	33
More Practices for Promoting Motor Development and Good Health Practices.....	34
Strengthening Your Understanding of Motor Development and Good Health Practices	35
Sequence of Skills and Learning Goals	37
Birth–12 Months	38
12–24 Months	43
24–36 Months	48
Effective Use of ELM: Birth–36 Months	53
How to Use Activity Plans	53
Organization	53
Components	54
Selecting Activity Options.....	55
Examples of Caregiver Selections of Activity Options for Infants	56
Examples of Caregiver Selections of Activity Options for Toddlers.....	57
Adapting Activity Options.....	58
Planning Form.....	59
Daily Schedule Considerations	60
Preparing the Environment	61
Inviting and Supporting Participation	62

Effective Use of ELM: Birth–36 Months continued

Pace and Presence	63
Caregiver Talk.....	64
Guidelines.....	65
Quality of Implementation	66
Observing and Supporting Children’s Progress in Developing Foundation Skills.....	67
Observation Guides.....	68
Follow-up Plans.....	69
Connecting with Families	71
Readiness Starts Early	72
Tools for Sharing Child-Specific Progress Information	72
Training Resources	73
Basic Training Plan: Five Key Steps	73
ELM Online Trainings.....	73
ELM Activity Observation Checklist.....	74
Example of an Activity Observation and Coaching Session with a Caregiver.....	76
Appendix	78
ELM Planning Form: Week of _____ Sample	79
Guide for Observing and Individualizing: Fine Motor Development Sample.....	80
ELM Snapshot of Child Progress: Birth–12 Month Sample	86
ELM Activity Observation Checklist Sample	88