The 2019 Rosabeth Moss Kanter Award For Excellence in Work-Family Research

The Rosabeth Moss Kanter Award for Excellence in Work-Family Research

The Kanter Award raises awareness of excellent work-family research, fosters debate about standards of excellence, identifies the best of the best studies on which to base future research and outlines specific implications of the research for work-life and human resource professionals.

Named in honor of Rosabeth Moss Kanter, who has been identified as the most influential contributor to modern literature on work and family, the Kanter Award is given for the best research paper(s) published during the year. The rigorous award process involves a minimum of 60 scholarly reviewers from all over the world who decide on the Kanter winners from among over 2500 articles published in over 80 scholarly journals. No applications or nominations are accepted. This award raises awareness of excellent work-family research, fosters debate about standards of excellence, identifies the “best of the best” studies on which to base future research and outlines specific implications of the research for work-life and human resource professionals.
