The Mary Jane Catherwood Scholarship
Charles E. Mann Endowment Fund

About the Mary Jane Catherwood Scholarship:
The Mary Jane Catherwood Scholarship is an endowed scholarship established by Charles and Maria Mann. Mr. Mann, a 1939 graduate of Purdue, was a student-athlete who participated in tennis and football and spent a significant portion of his professional life coaching young athletes. Mr. Mann has established the scholarship in memory of his aunt, who was a life-long teacher and educational administrator who owned the area known as Happy Hollow.

Eligibility Requirements:
- Undergraduate students studying to become health education and/or physical education teachers.
- Preference given to first-year students.
- Minimum 2.65 GPA.
- Financial need as determined by Purdue’s Division of Financial Aid, based upon the FAFSA.
- May be renewed if recipient continues to meet eligibility requirements.
