Mission Statement: Healthcare organizations are best served by self-operated foodservice. AHF drives excellence by developing members to create best practice, advocating for our members, and connecting the leaders that advance the industry.

Overview of AHF: What is Self-Operated Foodservice? There are two types of foodservice operations in healthcare facilities: self-operated and contracted. Our self-operated operations are “in house,” meaning the foodservice department is managed by the healthcare facility’s own staff. Contracted operations are outsourced, meaning the foodservice department is run by an outside, third-party foodservice company.

All of AHF’s food and nutrition professionals are from operations that are self-operated.

At Marriott International, we celebrate the optimists who make their own mark. Our founders, J.W. and Alice Marriott started with a small idea, a root beer stand. From there, it grew into a small hotel business, and then another, bigger one. Together they created something that changed their future—and maybe yours. A great career is a great adventure. Now it's your turn.

Where will your journey take you?

#1 Master’s Degree Program

#1 Doctoral Program

Based off the Journal of Hospitality & Tourism Education (Vol. 25, Iss. 2, 2013) A Longitudinal Study of Hospitality and Tourism Management Graduate Programs

Students

Our graduate students come from a variety of U.S. and international colleges and universities with undergraduate degrees in hospitality, tourism, business, economics, or other related fields. Most already have some work experience in the hospitality and tourism industries. While here students work on real projects and solve real industry problems all in the state-of-the-art facility, Marriott Hall, a LEED Gold certified building on Purdue’s campus.

3 Research Centers

The School is home to three research centers designed to allow cooperative research across many individual projects leading to strong contributions to the industry:

1. Avery Foodservice Research Laboratory aims to be a leading proponent of research and technological advancement for the foodservice industry.

2. Center for the Study of Lodging Operations conducts research that serves the hotel industry and related organizations.

3. Purdue Tourism & Hospitality Research Center (PT&HRC) provides quality research services to communities, non-profits, and private sector organizations.

Master of Science (MS)

The Master of Science degree allows students to fully specialize and includes significant exposure to research. Students are provided with a full set of skills allowing for a successful career in chosen fields of specialization, including strong preparation for entry into PhD programs. Thesis and non-thesis options are available.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

The PhD program is designed to be one of the strongest research-based programs in the world. It includes a strong element of statistics and research design, and prepares students for careers in major research universities or research-based agencies.

With more than 2,000 restaurants in 50 states and around the world, Applebee's is one of the world's largest Casual Dining brands. Founded in 1980, Applebee's offers classic bar-and-grill menu items featuring higher-quality ingredients and premium preparation techniques, reasonable prices, and quality service in a neighborhood setting.

Today, we are building upon this heritage and further differentiating Applebee's to maintain the brand's position at the top of the Casual Dining segment. We expect to generate sustainable same-restaurant-sales momentum for the Applebee's brand by significantly increasing the effectiveness of Applebee's marketing efforts.

RACHEL MILLER, CAM
Graduate of Purdue HTM Program

“The Purdue HTM program set the foundation for my understanding of marketing, financials, management, accounting, facilities maintenance, and customer service. It seemed only natural that I could apply these same skills towards my career in Apartment Property Management. I’m able to maintain a great work/life blend while still utilizing my passion and education from the service industry.”

This business-focused MS in hospitality degree is tailored toward hospitality and tourism managers with at least three years managerial experience in hospitality and tourism management. Professionals who wish to work as an executive manager, transfer to the corporate side of hospitality and tourism management, or work within a more complex, full-service hotel and tourism establishment will be well positioned to excel in the next phase of their career with this specialized degree.

AWARD-WINNING FACULTY LEAD YOU TO SUCCESS

The award-winning faculty in the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management guides you to become a next-generation leader who advances the local and global professional standards and goals of hospitality and tourism management. Their dedication to the learning themes of advanced knowledge, and professional skills and personal growth provide an experienced-based education you can apply immediately to your career.

- Knowledge: Faculty present you with challenging, real-world assignments and advanced leadership-development skills so you can define your management style as it applies specifically to the hospitality and tourism management industry — a niche market with its own set of values and challenges. Through your innovative understanding of information literacy and research methods, you’ll think critically of business analytics, finance, marketing, and human resource management as you guide the health and growth of your organization.

- Professional Skills/Personal Growth: The experienced faculty works hard to improve your level of professionalism in leadership, communication, and critical thinking by expanding your self-awareness and global perspective. This solid understanding of cultural awareness and diversity prepares you to excel in managing large organizations and global markets.

Accelerate Your Career Today

Purdue University’s online Master of Science in Hospitality and Tourism Management (HTM) is a business-focused hospitality degree designed to help managers with industry experience rise to new levels. It provides you the advanced management, leadership and analytical skills you need to advance your career within the industry.

Through this program, you will:

- Lead your organization through continual changes with advanced management and leadership skills.
- Increase your personal competitiveness with cutting-edge skills in human resources, operations management, marketing and finance.
- Focus on the real challenges of hospitality and tourism management with advanced critical thinking and problem solving techniques.
- Drive business decisions through quantitative and data analysis.
- Learn from leading researchers in hospitality management and gain real-world experience from experienced managers.
CURRICULUM

The curriculum is designed to be experiential and project-orientated — tailored specifically to managers with five years of professional experience and a minimum of three years of management experience.

There is a strong focus on the business side of the hospitality and tourism industry, so you can solve the real daily challenges of working at an advanced level in this niche market. Learning with other professionals, you’ll apply your new knowledge immediately to your current position, getting you noticed as a qualified leader who’s ready to take the next step in their career.

The MS in Hospitality and Tourism Management is comprised of 34 credits, and is expected to take 24 months.
