

HTM 10100: Hospitality and Tourism Student Seminar

Course Description

Course assists the student new to Purdue to become acquainted with the Purdue system and with the HTM department and program. Information presented to assist students with developing strategies for academic and career-related success at Purdue.

Pre-requisite

Hospitality and Tourism Management majors only.

Must be enrolled in one of the following classifications:

Freshman: 0 - 14 hours

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to:

Describe the curriculum of the Hospitality and Tourism Management Department; the Purdue University registration process and apply that knowledge to plan their academic program and develop a schedule each semester at Purdue.

Use the principles of time management in planning their time commitments

Demonstrate individual skills and interests related to career choice.

Define and apply civic engagement principles in the local community in service to a non-profit hospitality or tourism related business.

Create a professional resume and understand the interview process in searching for employment.