

APF/COGDOP James Legacy Scholarship Award

The American Psychological Foundation (APF) is pleased to announce P. Priscilla Lui, of Purdue University, as the winner of the 2013 APF/COGDOP Peter and Malina James & Dr. Louis P. James Legacy Scholarship. Ms. Lui will receive $1,000 to fund her dissertation, "Disentangling Universal and Culture-Specific Risks to Mental Health among Asian Americans: A Multi-site Longitudinal Study." We are delighted to have the opportunity to promote Ms. Lui's current work and inspire future endeavors in the field of psychology.

Since 1953, APF has been supporting innovative research and programs that launch careers and seed the knowledge base on critical issues around the globe. For more information, please visit the APF Web site at www.apa.org/apf.

American Psychological Association Dissertation Research Award

Dear Pan Priscilla,

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that you have been selected as a recipient of a 2013 American Psychological Association Dissertation Research Award. This award of $1,000 is to be used to help offset your dissertation research costs as specified in your application.

The Science Directorate will publish an announcement of your award in its newsletter Psychological Science Agenda and in other outlets.

Congratulations again on being selected as an award recipient. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Bree Gunter | Science Programs Associate
Science Directorate
American Psychological Association
750 First Street NE, Washington, DC 20002-4242