The University of Michigan announces a special diversity-focused recruitment initiative for undergraduate students who are interested in pursuing doctoral studies in Biopsychology and Cognition & Cognitive Neuroscience. This webinar is open to students from diverse backgrounds who are currently undergraduates or enrolled in Master’s or PREP Programs.

Fellows will participate in a series of workshops, panel discussions, and individual meetings designed to introduce them to the graduate psychology programs at the University of Michigan and prepare them for the graduate admissions process in psychology.

ELIGIBILITY: Any undergraduate students who meet one or more of the following criteria:
- come from an educational, cultural or geographic background that is underrepresented in graduate study in their discipline in the United States or at the University of Michigan;
- have demonstrated a commitment to diversity;
- have experienced financial hardship as a result of family economic circumstances; and/or
- are first-generation U.S. citizens or are the first generation in their family to graduate from a four-year college.
