HLA FACULTY AND SPECIALISTS VISIT TO FRITH FARM IN MAINE

Ashley Adair, Lori Hoagland, and Liz Maynard traveled with Indiana Urban Soil Health and NRCS staff to Frith got to enjoy coastal cuisine and spent a lot of time in good conversation!

Farm in Scarborough, ME last week. Daniel Mays, owner of Frith Farm, hosted the group for a no-till organic vegetable workshop on June 15th. Frith Farm emphasizes soil health in all its production practices, including minimizing tillage, mulching with organic materials, and cover cropping. In addition to spending the day on the farm, the group

PETER HIRST PRESENTED IN WASHINGTON DC

Peter Hirst was in Washington DC last week to give a presentation during the reporting on the project "Cultural Restoration in Post-Conflict Northern Iraq". He was joined with colleagues from Purdue, IU, Notre Dame, the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, and partners from the University of Duhok in Kurdistan Iraq. He also updated staff from Senator Young's office and the House Committee on Agriculture on the project and its implications.
