

Blackboard

Building an Honor Code quiz will enable you to require students to agree to the Honor Code prior to beginning an assessment. First, you will need to create the Honor Code quiz. Second, you will need to add adaptive release conditions to your assessment. This will ensure students have agreed to the Honor Code before being able to start the assessment.

Create the Honor Code Quiz

To build this in Blackboard, open the course for which you would like to add an assessment. Navigate to the content area where the quiz will reside. Click 'Assessments' and select 'Test' from the drop-down.

Click 'Create' to add a new test.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to us at TLT@purdue.edu.

Enter a title and instructions for the quiz.
