When you have knowledge of cultural worldview frameworks, you can understand the elements important to members of another culture. These elements can relate to the culture’s history, values, politics, communication styles, economy, beliefs, and practices.

In this assignment you are required to look up the answers to the following topics on the country or countries you will be visiting. In addition to writing the answers as a Word document or other file to these topics, please provide images from the Internet, links or websites to add clarity to your learning. For example, the first topic is the name of the head of state, perhaps the president, king, queen, etc. Please look up an image of this person and insert it into your Word document or other file.

The following list of topics comes from pages 129 - 130 in Preparing to Study Abroad: Learning to Cross Cultures by Steven T. Duke. This fun and easy to read book is highly recommended reading.
