

Awards

Award Title (select from dropdown list):

- Excellence in Course Design and Teaching (Credit)
- Excellence in Course Design and Teaching (Non-Credit)
- Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Award
- Innovative Course Design and Use of Technology

Nominator (Skip this question if you are self-nominating):

Name:

Email:

Phone:

Nominee:

Name(s):

Email:

Phone:

Title(s) of Nominee:

Course being nominated (Include semester, section & instructor):

Please select campus

- Purdue West Lafayette (PWL)
- Purdue Northwest (PNW)
- Indiana University Purdue Fort Wayne (IPFW)
- Purdue Global

How did you hear about these Awards?

- Purdue Today
- Social Media
- Colleague
- Other

Please select campus: (PWL, PFW, PNW, PG)

Is this a team nomination?

- Yes
- No

If a Team Nomination please provide team members names and areas of expertise:

Excellence in Course Design and Teaching (Credit)

Nomination statement of NO MORE than 500 words that explains how the course fits the following criteria:

- A well designed approach to instruction, including elements such as needs assessment, learner analyses, instructional strategies, evidence of timely content, and appropriate use of technology
- Effective application of the distance learning innovation which enabled student learning
- Positive impact on the clientele served, as reflected by program evaluations (formative and summative) or other documentation of appropriate measures

Letter of recommendation from the Dean or Department Head in support of the nomination (note: this document is separate and distinct from the nomination statement)

Course syllabus and instructional planning

- Developer's expectations for the teaching of the subject matter (course objectives)
- Developer's expectations for the measurement of learning (assignments)
- Basic educational activity information-grading policies, schedule, educational activity materials

Instructional design methodology or learning tools used to develop the course

Formative and summative evaluations.

Please provide learner evaluation results:

- Quantitative
- Qualitative

What are the strengths of this educational activity/course?

What is the value/impact of providing this course online?

Do you give the Awards Committee permission to access your course in Brightspace?

- Yes
- No

Other relevant documents:

Excellence in Course Design and Teaching (Non-Credit)

Nomination statement of NO MORE than 500 words that explains how the course fits the following criteria:

- A well designed approach to instruction, including elements such as needs assessment, learner analyses, instructional strategies, evidence of timely content, and appropriate use of technology
- Effective application of the distance learning innovation which enabled student learning Positive impact on the clientele served, as reflected by program evaluations (formative and summative) or other documentation of appropriate measures

Letter of recommendation from the Dean or Department Head in support of the nomination (note: this document is separate and distinct from the nomination statement)

Course syllabus and instructional planning

- Developer's expectations for the teaching of the subject matter (course objectives)
- Developer's expectations for the measurement of learning (assignments)
- Basic educational activity information-grading policies, schedule, educational activity materials

Instructional design methodology or learning tools used to develop the course

Formative and summative evaluations. Please provide learner evaluation results:

- Quantitative
- Qualitative

What are the strengths of this educational activity/course?

What is the value/impact of providing this course online?

Do you give the Awards Committee permission to access your course in Brightspace?

- Yes
- No

Other relevant documents:

Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Award

Curriculum Vitae (shortened to include information relevant to this nomination)

List of one or more significant scholarly works/publications/etc. that supports the nomination.

If the publication work is public domain and published, please upload copies.

Brief description of the scholarly work, how it relates to Purdue Online, and its potential impact on teaching and learning. (500 words or less)

Include a letter of support from the nominating department head describing the scholarly contributions of the nominee and the importance of the specific scholarship leading to this nomination.

Other relevant documents:

Innovative Course Design and Use of Technology

Nomination statement of NO MORE than 500 words that explains how the course fits the following criteria:

- A well-designed approach to instruction involving innovation and/or a creative use of technology
- Effective application of the distance learning innovation which enabled student learning
- Positive impact on the clientele served, as reflected by program evaluations (formative and summative) or other documentation of appropriate measures

Description of innovation and/or creative use of technology and reasoning for using this technology and/or instructional approach:

What are the strengths of this educational activity/course?

What is the value/impact of providing this course online?

Letters of recommendation from Dean, Department Head and/or colleagues:

Formative and summative evaluations.

Please provide learner evaluation results:

- Quantitative
- Qualitative

Do you give the Awards Committee permission to access your course in Brightspace?

- Yes
- No

Other relevant documents: