

A Guide to Participating in Boilers OUT Loud!

Fall 2020

Coordinated by the Purdue LGBTQ Center in partnership with the Department of Theatre and the Purdue Writing Lab

STEP 2

Identify topic or central theme to write about related to your experiences with gender and/or sexuality.

STEP 3

Write! If you need help getting started, check out Shitty First Drafts.

STEP 8

Get ready for your close up!

Performers will be filmed individually on October 14th.

Sign up here.

Plan to wear whatever makes you feel the most fabulous and confident!

STEP 4

Ask friends and family for feedback on your monologue.

Students: Sign-up and attend an asynchronous or virtual one-on-one tutorial session at the Purdue Writing Lab by October 2nd (required).

STEP 5

Make sure your monologue is no longer than 5-7 minutes read aloud.

STEP 6

Submit your monologue by October 2nd.

Upload it here.

STEP 7

Attend 2 rehearsal sessions.

Sign up here.

STEP 1

Send an email to LGBTQ@purdue.edu to let us know you are interested in performing in Boilers OUT Loud.