NAECC Lunch and Learn:
INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES DURING THE INDEPENDENCE IN THE ANDES

Presented by Dr. Victor Maque
2018 Tecumseh Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of History

Wednesday, February 21

11:00 am - 1:00 pm | NAECC

The independence era in the Andes has been mostly dominated by historical accounts that ignored the Indigenous sectors. What explains the absence of Indigenous communities' views about the social and political processes unfolding? Recent scholarly research signals that for the indigenous sectors, the independence meant continuity rather than change. This talk will attempt to emphasize the views and interventions of the Indigenous communities in this complex historical process. Sponsored by: Center for Leadership Development in collaboration with the NAECC

NAECC Film Screening featuring
WHAT WAS OURS

Tuesday, February 27 | 6:00 - 8:00 pm | NAECC

Film screening and dinner at the NAECC. Film description: “Going home was never an option for single mother Lena Mahikan (Cara Gee). But when her 13-year-old, Peeka (Shay Eyre) overdoses in the streets of Toronto, she is forced to return home to her estranged mother and face a life-long legacy of shame and resentment. Empire of Dirt is a story about second chances and summoning the power of family to soothe the pain of cyclical damage.” – Redcloud Studios. Not Rated, Redcloud Studios. Run time:
