

SPRING BREAK DAY TRIPS 2018

NATIVE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL CENTER

Tuesday, March 13th Eiteljorg Museum, Indianapolis

The Eiteljorg Museum of American Indian and Western Art houses one of the finest collections of Native contemporary art in the World and is located in downtown Indianapolis. This trip includes:

- ◆ Tour of the Museum including the Native American collection
- ◆ Lunch at the Eiteljorg Museum Café
- ◆ Presentation by Dr. Scott Shoemaker, Curator, Native American Art, History and Culture
- ◆ Depart from campus at 9:00 am
- ◆ Return to campus at 5:00 pm

Wednesday, March 14th The Field Museum, Chicago

The Field Museum is a natural history museum located in downtown Chicago and includes special exhibitions focused on American Indian cultures. This trip includes:

- ◆ Tour of the Museum
- ◆ Presentation by Joseph “Woody” Aguilar (San Ildefonso Pueblo), as part of the Armour Seminar Series
- ◆ Lunch at the Explorer Café
- ◆ Guided tour through the “Drawing on Tradition: Kanza Artist Chris Pappan” Exhibition
- ◆ Depart from campus at 8:30 am
- ◆ Return to campus at 6:00 pm

These spring break cultural immersion trips are open to Purdue students and includes transportation, museum admission fees, and lunch.

To sign up, contact Guiya Muhammad at gmuhamma@purdue.edu and any questions, contact Felica Ahasteen-Bryant at felica@purdue.edu.

Please indicate if you’re joining us for both days or only one day.

Deadline to sign up: Monday, 3/12/18

Funding provided by the NAECC and the Diversity Transformation Award, Office of the Provost