Fulbright Scholar Grants

Prof. Chris Lukasik describes the multiple possibilities for current Purdue faculty through the Fulbright Scholar program. This event is for faculty only.

Fulbright: Around the World in 90 Minutes

Mix and mingle with Purdue's rich and varied Fulbright community. Attendees will include Fulbright-connected faculty, staff, and students from around campus and the world. Use this opportunity to learn about Fulbright from those who know it best and connect with individuals with regional knowledge or "travel the world" and explore potential host countries for your Fulbright experience. Appetizers and refreshments will be provided.

2026-27 Fulbright for Graduate Students

Ph.D. and master's students: learn more about Fulbright grants to fund independent research, to teach English abroad, or to earn a secondary degree from an institution abroad. This session will emphasize the challenges and benefits specific to graduate students. Those who are interested but cannot attend are encouraged to attend one of the general sessions.

2026-27 English Teaching Assistant Grants

Excited by the prospect of putting your tutoring, teaching, or mentoring experience to use teaching English in another country? English Teaching Assistants also serve as U.S. cultural ambassadors. Session for applicants aiming to be abroad in 2026-27. Juniors, seniors, recent alumni, and graduate students are welcome to apply.

2026-27 Research and Study Grants

Apply to fund independent research or study in a foreign country during 2026-27. Learn the details of the application process and how Fulbright can best meet your needs. Juniors, seniors, recent alumni, and graduate students are welcome to apply.

Fulbright for STEM Majors

STEM undergraduate students – wondering how Fulbright can contribute to your study and professional goals? This STEM-specific session will cover all your options, whether you want to conduct independent research, pursue a graduate degree, or something else! STEM students who are interested but cannot attend are encouraged to attend one of the general sessions.

Fulbright Past, Present, and Future: Alumni Grantee Panel

To celebrate the end of Fulbright Week 2025, join us for a Q&A and moderated conversation with Purdue Fulbrighters past and present. Learn more about their individual experiences across a wide range of regions and opportunities and consider what life might be like for you as a Fulbrighter.
