EMPOWERING STUDENTS TO WRITE THEIR OWN SONGS OF SUCCESS
Connecting with nationwide colleagues

• “Hearing the good, the bad, and the ugly from around the country really helps you realize that we are all in this together, and that sharing our good can help those dealing with the ugly.”
  – Cara Wetzel, Undergraduate Studies Program
Connecting with nationwide colleagues

- “I value the socialization with old and new Purdue colleagues plus conversations with the new acquaintances in the hallway or at the table just prior to or directly after the presentation.”
  – Pat George, Pharmacy

New vocabulary – “voluntold”

- A nice way to say no volunteers will be solicited and you have been selected to do the task.

Keep your glass full.

- You can only take care of others if you are taken care of.
- If you don’t find and go after your own passion you will run out of “stuff” to give those that need you.
- What is most important to you in your life…then make it happen.
- Remember the good moments to help pull you through the hard times
- If you’d know you’d be successful & what it looks like when you got there - how would you act now?
- It is hard work to be present at all times.

Empower yourself to make your ambitions happen.
High Achieving Students’ use of Mindmap tools to Develop Plans for Undergraduate Involvement

- Mindmeister (http://www.mindmeister.com/)
- Prezi
- Bubbl.us (https://bubbl.us/)
- Creately (http://creately.com/)

- Help the student create pathways
- Branch out to all ideas that they want to pursue
- Prioritize when they want to achieve the goal, set dates, add URLs and contacts for each item
Write Your Own Ballad: Developing a Successful Professional Development Plan

- Take the time to figure out what it is you are looking for.
- Career Trajectories
- Job Satisfaction
- Clear Expectations

Retuning the Sour Notes: Managing Difficult Social Media Conversations

- Negative Comments
