Team-Building Kitchen Rental Programming

Renting out the Demonstration Kitchen is a great way to do just that! Cook a meal together, split into teams and have a bake-off, or even recreate your favorite cooking show!

What Should I Know Before I Book?

- Participants must bring their own food
- Rental includes Demo Kitchen & Wellness Conference Room
- 4 hour rental time slot: $200 @ $50 per hour
- Rental includes use of all Demo Kitchen equipment & utensils

How does this promote team building?

- By assigning teams ahead of time, supervisors can group together individuals who don’t usually work together. This gives coworkers an opportunity to get to know each other.
- Each team must use problem solving skills and work together when they are (surprise!) reassigned a new course to cook without using a recipe.
- Each team must work together to choose recipe(s) that will be feasible in the time frame and budget they have been given.
