

How to Create a “What-if” Plan

"What-if" Plans are used to visualize paths to degree and requirements for various educational goals. There can be an unlimited number of saved plans for each student, making the "what-if" plan a great way to envision how different majors, additional majors, minors, and certificates could impact a student's time to degree. View the video below to learn how to create a "what-if" plan.

<https://youtu.be/aUSlwd01BE>