

THE METHODOLOGY CENTER PURDUE UNIVERSITY

MCAP Upcoming Events for Spring 2025

Special Event:

Methods Cafe Wine and Cheese Event

When & Where: April 18th, 2:30-4:30, John Purdue Room

We will be giving our inaugural awards for best graduate student methods paper and a grant for a graduate student project. There will be a call-out for these awards soon. We will also have different methodological areas throughout the room for folks to discuss their methods, common challenges, and how they use them in their research. Wine, cheese, and appetizers will be provided!

Work-In-Progress Series:

April 2nd, KRAN G002, 1:30-2:30PM

Developing Tools for Geospatial Cyberinfrastructure Training in the Social Sciences

Nicole Kang (Purdue Libraries), Dr. Ian Lindsay (Associate Professor, Anthropology, Purdue University), and Rajesh Kalyanam (Rosen Center for Research Computing)

Drawing Parallels across Complex Trait Genomics and Social Science: Integrating Environmental and Genetic Risk Factors for Depression

Dr. Katie Thompson (Post-Doc, Sociology, Purdue University)

EVENT MOVED: April 21st, KRAN G002, 1:30-2:30PM

Exploring Changes in Reproductive Healthcare Deserts at the U.S. County Level, 2010-2021

Dr. Christie Sennott (Associate Professor, Sociology, Purdue University)

Workshop Series:

March 7th, Nelson 1215, 11am-2pm

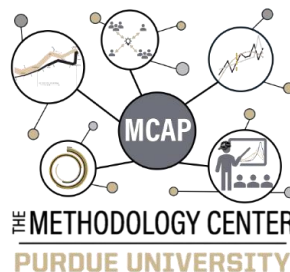

A Social Scientist's Introduction to Item Response Theory

Dr. Brooke Magnus (Associate Professor, Department of Psychology and Neuroscience, Boston College)

April 4th, WALC 3121, 1PM-4PM

Building Strong Research Foundations: How to Design and Publish Your Simulation-Based Power Analysis

Yongseok Lee (Post-Doc, Human Development and Family Science, Purdue University)

THE METHODOLOGY CENTER
PURDUE UNIVERSITY