The Star-Spangled Banner

*O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

Purdue One Health

Innovating at the Intersection of People, Pets, Plants, and the Planet

April 2026

Eric L. Barker, PhD
Vice President for Health Affairs
Jeannie and Jim Chaney Dean of Pharmacy

The Big Question:

What is this One Health Thing?

- An alliance of Purdue's Health-Related Colleges
- A shared platform for health challenges spanning human, animal, agriculture, and environmental domains.

The Big Question:

What is this One Health Thing?

The One Health Triad

Why One Health?

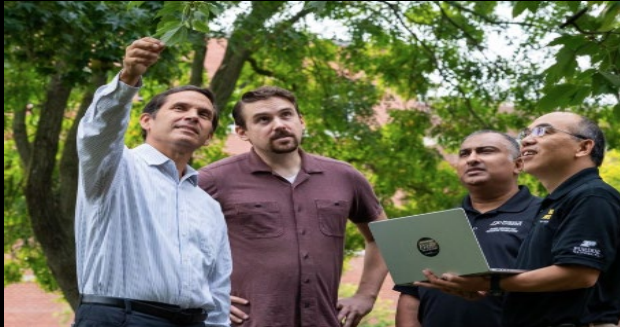

- Health challenges don't fit neatly into one discipline.
- Workforce, research, and community health issues are interconnected.
- Purdue has unique strengths across Vet Med, Pharmacy, HHS, Agriculture, Science, and Engineering.
- Build on strong interdisciplinary and collaborative culture.
- Leverage partnerships

Vision

Foster interdisciplinary collaboration

- Faculty Hires
- Cross-College Collaborations
 - Digital Forestry+,
 - Heartland Childrens
 - Zoonotic Disease Modeling
- New academic Programs

Leverage science, data, and partnerships

- State Engagement
- Corporate Partnerships
- One Health District
 - White Family Foundation
 - YMCAs
- Regional Partnerships

Deliver real-world impact

- Veterinary Comparative Oncology Center
- Cardiology Collaboration
- Radiopharmaceutical Workforce and Research Development
- 4-H Engagement
- Rural Community Support

Driving Academic Programs

Near term goals

- Create New Cross-Disciplinary Academic Degree Programs
 - Ex. Radiopharmaceuticals
 - Joint degrees with Masters of Public Health
 - One Health Certificate
 - Pharma Manufacturing (Lilly/Lebanon LEAP)
- Careful coordination of strategic faculty recruitments to support One Health thematic hires:
 - Advanced Chemistry
 - AI-Guided Biomolecular Design, Biotechnology, and Computational Biology
 - Integrating Health Across Lifecycle and Systems

Innovative One Health Research

- Grown with Precision, Designed for Health (agriculture, food as medicine, microbiome)
- Disease Modeling, Analytics, and Surveillance (AI-driven modeling, zoonotic disease prediction)
- Translational Health, Logistics, and Delivery of Care (pharma manufacturing, supply chain, clinical care)
- Therapeutics, Devices, and Novel Diagnostics (drug discovery, regenerative medicine, cross-species interventions)

AI IN HEALTHCARE

- Therapy Management – analyze data, med usage, adherence
- Personalized Medicine – integration of patient data
- Streamlined Operation – order processing and verification
- Diagnosis
- Diagnostic Imaging
- Networked Medical Devices – ex. Continuous Glucose Monitors (CGM)

PARTNERSHIPS

Lilly 360

Largest industry-academic agreement of its kind in the U.S.
Extending from success of the Lilly Scholars at Purdue and the Lilly
Purdue Research Alliance Center.

- Discovering and accelerating the delivery of medicines to patients
- Bridging the gap between laboratory discoveries and clinical applications
- Creating more resilient, efficient, and sustainable supply chains
- Deploying innovative, scalable approaches to workforce development

Lilly plans to expand Purdue University collaboration with up to a $250 million investment to accelerate pharmaceutical innovation

One Health Innovation District in Indianapolis

Create a future that improves animal, plant, environmental, and human health while positively impacting Indiana's economy.

Purdue is partnering with Elanco in Indianapolis to build an innovation ecosystem that includes:

- flexible laboratory space for R&D
- incubator space for start-up companies
- co-located expertise of Purdue, multinational corporations and entrepreneurs

Community Engagement

Bolster community engagement in alignment with land-grant mission; provide support and education for One Health concepts to impact communities.

- Center for Rural and Migrant Health
- Center for Community Health Enhancement and Learning (HEAL)
- AMPATH – The Academic Model Providing Access to Healthcare
- Health Extension
- Center for Human-Animal Bond
- Indy Health District

MISSION + VISION

The Purdue Office of Engagement connects the university with communities and individuals in partnerships to make the world a more resilient and prosperous place for all, at home and across the globe. The Office fosters reciprocal relationships with external partners, leveraging university resources in teaching, research and engagement to solve community challenges.

THANK YOU HAIL PURDUE!

DAVE SATTLER Sattlercarterns@gmail.com (Cell) 765.714.2030

Dave Sattler first applied for the job of editorial cartoonist for The Journal and Courier as a Purdue University student at the age of 20. He had been drawing cartoons for the local weekly paper, The Lafayette Leader, since high school. Dave graduated from Purdue in 1971 with a degree in Industrial Management. Over 49 years later, Dave was still drawing cartoons for the Lafayette Journal and Courier until his position was eliminated in April 2017.

Over the years, Dave built a strong readership and demonstrated leadership in the Greater Lafayette community. Citizens looked to Dave for humor, direction, insight, and nostalgia, and appreciated that he was not afraid to offer biting criticism when it was justified.

Through the years, he published three books of collected cartoons: Out of the Mothballs – 1983, Lighter Lafayette – 1993, and My View from Here – 2003. All three featured commentary on pivotal events in Lafayette, Indiana, and the nation over the years. Dave was selected for inclusion in Best Editorial Cartoons of the Year 24 times from 1982 to 2015.

He received the Hoosier State Press Association Award for "Best Editorial Cartoonist of the Year" in 1996 and 2004, and was awarded second place in 2002, 2006, and 2008.

Dave served as a director on many community boards, including Visit Lafayette-West Lafayette, United Way of Greater Lafayette, St. Elizabeth Hospital Foundation, Indiana Vocational Technical College Development, Wolf Park, and Wabash Center.

In addition to all his community involvement, he is, foremost, a husband to his wife, Nancy, and a devoted father to his four grown children and nine grandchildren.

HAIL PURDUE

Verse:

To your call once more we rally,
Alma Mater, hear our praise!
Where the Wabash spreads its valley,
Filled with joy our voices raise.
From the sky in swelling echoes
Come the cheers that tell the tale
Of your vict'ries and your heroes,
Hail Purdue! We sing all hail!

Chorus:

Hail, hail to old Purdue!
All hail to our old gold and black!
Hail, hail to old Purdue!
Our friendship may she never lack!
Ever grateful, ever true,
Thus we raise our song anew
Of the days we've spent with you,
All hail our own Purdue!
Oft we'll gather 'round thy banner,
Oft we'll tread the well-known halls,
Oft we'll praise thee Alma Mater,
Hear our voices as they call.
From the sky in swelling echoes
Come the cheers that tell the tale
Of your vict'ries and your heroes,
Hail Purdue! We sing all hail!
