Advanced Credit Checklist

To be eligible for advanced credit testing, you must complete the following steps:

- Print the Form 231 and meet with your academic advisor to have it completed.
- Register online.
CHM eventreg.purdue.edu/online/ptcchem
BIOL 12100 eventreg.purdue.edu/online/ptcbio
CS 15900 eventreg.purdue.edu/online/csptc
- Pay the Purdue credit by exam fee. This fee is non-refundable.
You will have 10 minutes to complete registration and pay the fee. If you are not ready to pay the fee, please wait to begin the registration process. A period of inactivity will cause the system to lock, and it will need to be reset before you can continue.

On test day, you must bring the following items for admission:

- Completed Form 231
- Photo ID
- Approved calculator (if allowed). Review the calculator restrictions for your exam at <https://www.purdue.edu/testingcenter/tests/advanced-credit.php>. Calculators will not be provided by the Testing Center.

Please be aware:

- Breaks are not allowed during the exam. Please attend to personal business before reporting to the Testing Center.
- Outerwear is not allowed in the testing room. This includes coats, jackets, vests, scarves, hoodies, and other sweatshirts/sweaters with hoods, pockets, and/or pouches.
- Electronic devices are not allowed in the testing room. This includes cell phones, laptops, tablets, music players, headphones, recording devices, electronic storage devices, translators, watches, fitness trackers, etc.

You will forfeit your registration fee and may lose your opportunity to test this semester if:

- You register for a test for which you are not eligible
- You do not attend the test session for which you registered
- You cannot be admitted because you arrive late
- You cannot be admitted because you did not complete the required steps listed above
- You access a non-approved calculator or other prohibited item(s) during the exam

Visit <https://www.purdue.edu/testingcenter/day-of-test/rules.php> for a complete list of testing center rules.

Allowable calculators for chemistry advanced credit testing are restricted to one or two line TI-30X and TI-36X models. Must have TI-30X or TI-36X in the model name.

Calculators with more than two lines are NOT allowed.

Test proctors will check calculators prior to admittance. If your calculator is not an approved model, you will not be allowed to use it. Calculators will not be provided by the Testing Center, and testing will not be delayed for you.
