PURDUE
UNIVERSITY

2008 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH AWARDS COMPETITION

The Purdue University Chapter of Sigma Xi, the scientific research society, is conducting a GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH AWARDS COMPETITION in the format of a scientific poster session.

There will be a first prize of $200, provided by Sigma Xi and The Graduate School, and recognition for other outstanding posters in each of the four research areas:

- * Physical Sciences
- * Life Sciences
- * Engineering
- * Behavioral and Social Sciences

There will be one prize awarded for each approximately 15 posters in a research area. In recent years, this has resulted in 2 top awards in both Life Sciences and in Engineering. To participate:

1. Submit an abstract of your research by 5:00 pm, Friday, February 1, 2008. These will be published in a booklet. Forms may be submitted electronically at the web site listed below. Those who submit abstracts will receive detailed information about poster preparation.
2. Present a poster at the 2008 SIGMA XI GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH AWARDS COMPETITION POSTER SESSION in Steward Center, Rooms 214/218 on Wednesday, February 27, 2008. The session will run from 12:30 - 4:00 pm and 6:00 - 9:00 pm. (judging). Presenters are requested to hang their posters by 4:00 pm and to be at their posters from 6:00- 8:30 pm to answer questions from the judges. Judging will be conducted by a panel of faculty selected from each of the above research areas.
3. Posters selected for award will be displayed at the Annual Sigma Xi Initiation Banquet to be held in the Purdue Memorial Union on April 16, 2008. In addition, all award winners and those highlighted for Honorable Mention will be invited to attend the banquet in recognition of their outstanding research endeavors.

This is an excellent opportunity to learn about the excellence and diversity of scientific research at Purdue as well as to make others aware of your contributions. All graduate students with appropriate research experiences are urged to participate in this competition.
