10:20 am - 12:00 pm: Presentation

1:30 pm - 3:20 pm: Open Discussion

Stewart Center, Room 206

Dr. Clayton is a renowned researcher and speaker on the use of reflection to enhance critical thinking and the student experience. Her innovative approaches to teaching and learning integrate critical thinking, reflection, and assessment into traditional and service-learning courses. She holds undergraduate degrees in English, Biology, and Environmental Studies (1989) from NC State, and an M.S. (1992) and Ph.D. (1995) from the Curriculum in Ecology at UNC-Chapel Hill.

These sessions on the developmental journey of learning will focus on the opportunities and challenges associated with integrating critical thinking and reflection into student learning, with the ultimate goal of enhancing the student experience.
