PVM Excellence in Research Award

Purpose: To honor faculty at the College of Veterinary Medicine who have demonstrated dedication and excellence in research.

Eligibility: All PVM faculty members who have been involved in research activities in the College of Veterinary Medicine shall be eligible. Recipients of the award shall be ineligible for reconsideration for the following 5 years.

Criteria for Selection: The faculty members should have demonstrated research excellence as evidenced by: development and maintenance of an extramurally funded research program; number and quality of peer-reviewed publications; impact as indicated by citations; invitations to national and international meetings; invitations to review grants and manuscripts; and editorial board functions; and effectiveness in training graduate students and post-docs. The faculty member should have demonstrated sustained service to the College of Veterinary Medicine through participation in committees and meetings, and support of the College's programs in teaching, research, and engagement.

Nomination Document: The nomination document should not exceed 4 pages, no smaller than 12 pt. font, and no less than 1 inch margins. The nomination document should contain all of the following components:

- a) Description of the quality and importance of the research program
- b) Summary of scholarship activities related to research
- c) Documentation of the impact of the research
- d) Documentation of success in training students and post-docs.
- e) A copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae (not restricted to the page limit) should be included.

Nominations will be due to the Office of Research by Friday, April 5, 2019
