This presentation will be a summary of the pathophysiology, clinical signs, and treatment of equine recurrent uveitis. Current and future research in prevention and treatment options for this condition will also be addressed.

One (1) Continuing Education (CE) credit is offered for this seminar.

January 10, 2020 | 8:00am-9:00am | Lynn Hall | Room 1136